Statement of Issues to be Presented

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining, contrary to overwhelming authority, that the Appellants were not the prevailing parties, when the Appellee voluntarily dismissed the complaint with prejudice.
2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that the Order Permitting Securities Trading Upon the Establishment of an Ethical Wall prohibited trading in the Debtor's securities despite the fact that by its own terms, the order provided a safe harbor and despite the fact that the Creditors' Committee's bylaws and the confidentiality agreement executed by the members of the committee affirmatively stated that trading in the Debtor's securities was permitted in accordance with securities laws.
3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in refusing to award Appellants' fees and costs in defending against the complaint where (i) the Appellee voluntarily dismissed the complaint with prejudice on the eve of trial, (ii) the undisputed documentary evidence establishes that the Appellee knew that the allegations underlying the complaint were meritless at the time the complaint was filed, (iii) the Appellee undertook no investigation prior to the filing the complaint and no discovery after the filing of the complaint to attempt to prove the allegations asserted therein, and (iv) the complaint was filed solely to harass the Appellants.
4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that Appellants' legal fees for defending against claims of breach of fiduciary duty and insider trading were unreasonable where the Appellants' counsel was required to undertake significant discovery, draft multiple dispositive motions, and prepare for trial on an expedited basis and where opposing counsel did not object to the reasonableness of the fees, where no requests for follow up information regarding Appellants' legal fees were made by the Bankruptcy Court or any party and where Appellants' counsel was available at the hearing on Appellant's motion for its legal fees to testify and be cross-examined regarding such fees.
